

Volunteer for The Wall That Heals in Pottawattamie County

Calling for community volunteers over Memorial Day weekend.

The Wall That Heals is a traveling, three-quarter-scale replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C., honoring the more than 58,000 service members who made the ultimate sacrifice during the Vietnam War. This exhibit brings healing, education, and remembrance to communities across the country.

Over Memorial Day weekend, Pottawattamie County will host The Wall That Heals and welcome visitors from across the region. Community volunteers play a vital role in ensuring a respectful, accessible, and meaningful experience for all. It will be open 24 hours a day and free to the public.

Volunteer Opportunities

- Welcoming and assisting visitors
- Supporting ceremonies and special events
- Helping maintain a respectful environment
- Assisting with exhibit operations, set-up, or tear-down
- Motorcade escort welcoming The Wall That Heals to our community

Volunteer Information

- Open to individuals, families, and community groups (no military experience required)
- Veterans and veteran supporters are encouraged to participate
- Shifts available throughout the weekend
- Training will be provided
- Advance registration is required

Interested in Volunteering for The Wall That Heals?

Scan the QR code to learn more and sign up. Your service helps ensure we can honor Vietnam service members and veterans and create a meaningful Memorial Day experience for our community.

